CONSENT STATEMENT FOR INFORMATION STORAGE AND INFORMATION SHARING

Person with parental responsibility / young person if over 16 years old

Name	Relationship to child/young person
Best time for	Best method of contact contact

In order for us to identify the needs of your child / young person, and offer services to meet those needs it may be necessary for us to consult with other agencies. We want to ask your permission to share personal information about you and your child / young person with these agencies where it is appropriate to do so.

The purpose of sharing information is to ensure suitable services are provided, through a better understanding of the individual's strengths and needs. Access to the information will only be given to staff that have a reason to see it.

This information will be recorded and held on file as paper and/or electronic copies and shared with relevant professionals as appropriate. Information can be shared without permission where there might be a child at risk of harm or has been harmed, or where a serious crime has or may be committed. Your information is protected by the Data Protection Act 1998. The information will, therefore, only be used for the reasons stated. It will be kept safe and secure. You have the right to see the information that is being kept about your child / young person.

This consent form is completed at the time of initial contact (or at any other time that seems appropriate), and then placed in the child / young person's file. Consent is needed for young people under the age of 16 from one parent who has parental responsibility. From the age of 16 young people should sign on their own behalf (where they are deemed competent in accordance with the Mental Capacity Act 2005), and adults with responsibility countersign up until the age of 18.

I give my consent for this information to be shared with any appropriate agency in order to help receive a better service. I understand that by signing this form, it does not affect my rights under the Data Protection or Human Rights law. I understand that at any time I can change or withdraw my consent by notifying the person who has receiving this information.
