6. For those under 18 at the time of the offence:

The Council is able (with your consent), to access records of criminal convictions to verify the information you supply. In the event of an offer of employment your written permission will be sought for this check to be undertaken with the Disclosure and Barring Service. (The Service is an executive arm of the Home Office which carries out criminal conviction checks for employers.) If you do not give your permission it will not be possible to consider your application further. As part of its checking procedure the Service will also check registers of persons found to be unsuitable to work with children or vulnerable adults which are maintained by the Disclosure and Barring Service Information on the Service, including their Code of Practice by which employers must abide, can be accessed on the internet at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-code-of-practice>.

We actively promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records. Information received from the Service will be kept in strict confidence. You will be sent directly the results of your check by the Service.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with us. The disclosure of a criminal record will only debar you from appointment if the selection panel, having considered carefully the following factors, determine this. The factors to be taken into account are: a. the responsibilities of the position, b. the vulnerability of children or adults supported, c. the nature of the offence(s), d. the number and pattern of offences (if there is more than one), e. how long ago the offence(s) occurred, f. the age of the offender when the offence(s) occurred.

We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

If the Service check discloses a conviction which you had failed to declare this may disqualify you from appointment, or result in summary dismissal if the discrepancy comes to light after appointment.
